

I feel extremely blessed to have been awarded this scholarship to help relive the burden of higher education costs. Coming from a single parent household affording college was going to be large financial task, but with the Glory Stack Memorial Scholarship it has eased the difficulty. This scholarship will help me achieve my goals of receiving a Civil Engineering degree from North Carolina State University. - Blakely Morgan