

Growing up in single income household, college is a huge financial burden for my family. I have always valued my education, but it was always a worry that I would not have the ability to attend a university due to financial problems. The Glory Stack Scholarship helped lift this huge burden and allowed me to pursue my passion of studying Computer Science at Lenoir-Rhyne University. I am beyond blessed to have received this opportunity.

Aubrie